

BESHALACH

This coming shabbat
The Parsha we'll read
Is Parshat Beshalach
It's amazing indeed.

This Shabbat is special,
The reading is long,
It's called "Shabbat Shira,"
"The Sabbath of Song."

We read on this day
Of G-d's great salvation,
A major step forward
In our becoming a nation.

We were let out of Egypt
Ran as fast as could be,
And then all of a sudden,
G-d split the Red Sea!

We crossed on dry land,
And no-one got wet
But hold on just a second,
It's not the end yet!

We got to the other side,
And when we looked around,
We saw, to our amazement
The Egyptians had drowned!

Moses and Israel
Sang a song of great praise,
And it was recorded in the Torah
Until the end of all days.

So this week, and on Pesach
We read twice a year,
These words from the Torah-
The song, Az Yashir.

With that I'll conclude
It's the end of the poem.
And I'd like to wish you
A SHABBAT SHALOM!

-Rabbi Cohen
(APPLAUSE..?)